2016 Take Up Trumps 2015 by 70% at 13.26 m sq ft

 Total Grade A take-up 13,265,050 sq ft, above 100,000 sq ft, in 54 buildings with an average size of 245,650 sq ft.

East Midlands - 6,731,572 sq ft West Midlands - 6,533,478 sq ft

- Average take-up since 2010 has been 8,162,804 sq ft.
- Amazon took 15% of Midlands Grade
 A take-up in 5 units totalling 2,028,503 sq ft.
- Manufacturers take-up in 2016 stood at 32% (4,180,149) of which 3,078,762 sq ft was in the West Midlands. It is anticipated that the trend will continue.
- Currently 38 units are available totalling 7,170,921 which is equivalent to circa 6 months' supply based on 2016 take-up.

- 21 speculative buildings are available totalling 4,226,615 sq ft (59% of total available space).
- New build take-up has absorbed over 600 acres of land.
- Tight supply is expected to lead to further speculative development activity although the market is constrained by the number of prime, ready to go, sites.
- Retailers and internet e-fulfilment users will continue to expand.
- There will be strong take-up of bespoke units by occupiers with specialist design requirements and those unable to find existing stock.
- Yields and rents will continue to strengthen.

Current Supply

There is currently 7,170,921 sq ft of Grade A space available across the Midlands in 38 buildings. Of this 59% (21 units) is speculatively built accommodation. This level is expected to remain consistent, where developers will comit to speculative development once stock is taken up.

There have been few business failures which traditionally lead to the release of stock, however where this has occurred these buildings have been quickly acquired.

Quoting rents on modern and speculative warehouse space have risen over 2016 reflecting the lack of availability and limited occupier choice.

New development sites are predominantly on greenfields which require lengthy promotion through the planning system and inevitably involve the introduction of complex infrastructure. This means replacing this year's take-up of 600 acres or more which was developed in 2016 will be challenging.

Rental Growth Continues

Rents have generally increased by £0.50 psf across the Midlands over the past 12 months.

We forecast growth of £0.25 psf or more for 2017.

Rental Growth Continued

Prime rents for units above 100,000 sq ft have now reached £6.50 psf in Northampton and Birmingham. We expect this level to be firmly established across the Golden Triangle during the year.

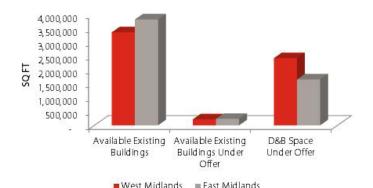

Landlords are now starting to quote rents of £6.75 psf for Grade A speculative stock.

10 year and longer leases are now being regularly achieved albeit some landlords will consider a 5 year term certain / lease break, subject to premium rental levels where occupiers offer a robust covenant.

Growth in prime rents has led to a strengthened secondary market for units in prime locations. Fully fitted refurbished 15 year old units are achieving rents of £5.95 psf.

Investment & Speculative Funding

The investment and speculative development markets continue to move forward. Whilst there was a pause after Brexit there is still strong demand and overall investment activity in this sector was up on the previous year.

2015 - £804,000,000 2016 - £1,061,000,000

Source: Property Data

Investment 31.97% up on 2015

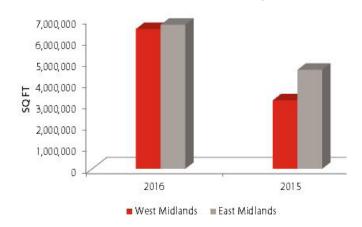

Major investors in the investment sector included Tritax Big Box REIT (£478,000,000), South Korean investors (£126,000,000), and M&G Real Estate (£50,000,000).

The funding market paused after Brexit, although since the Autumn various parties have commenced speculative development including Liberty (Worcester 162,000 sq ft), Prologis (Kettering 156,670 sq ft) and Exeter (Cannock 372,000 sq ft).

There are currently 21 vacant speculative units either completed or under construction totalling 4,226,615 sq ft with the largest being 372,000 sq ft and the smallest being 115,185 sq ft.

We envisage the speculative market will gain momentum during the course of 2017. Prime yields are likely to strengthen during the course of 2017 as the distribution sector continues to appeal to many investors with its outperformance.
